A Call Issued to the Cattlemen of the Range Country

The Coming Meeting to be Important to the Industry.

Warner's Bill to Stop Western Telegraph Monopoly.

Call to Cattlemen

DENVER, December 22.—The following call was issued to-day to members of the International Range association, state, territorial and local range cattle associations and owners of range cattle generally throughout the United States, Mexico and British Columbia:

You are hereby notified that the annual meeting of the International Range association will be held at the city of Denver, Colo., on the second Tuesday (8th) of February 188[illegible], commencing at ten o'clock a. m. The basis of representation will be by delegates duly appointed and accredited upon the following basis: Each association or society or combination of associations, being members thereof, controlling collectively not less than 10,000 head of neat cattle or horses, or both, shall be entitled to one delegate for each additional 25,000 head thus controlled, provided that no state or territory shall be entitled to more than one-fourth of the entire vote of the association. The speediest appointment of possible delegates under the above section to attend the meeting, consistent with a wise and judicious selection of the same, is earnestly urged upon all associations who desire representation in the meeting, as is a recommended discussion by local organization of all questions of importance to the plains cattle industry in general, to the end that the delegates may come into the convention with carefully prepared measures and thoughtfully conceived plans approved by their local associations at home and intended to promote the welfare of this great commercial enterprise. While a section of the constitution provides for the presence of but duly accredited delegates representing regularly formed and existing state, territorial and local associations having membership therein, we earnestly hope that attendance on the meeting will not be restricted to such delegates alone, as the questions and measures which will be under discussion will be live issues directly affecting the investments of every owner of range cattle. Introduction by delegates for purposes of debate and discussion of topics covering matters of sectional or local interest only, we trust, will be carefully avoided as far as this may be possible, in order that the limited time of the assemblage drawn from remote distances may be entirely devoted to the consideration of vital questions and measures affecting the interests of all, upon the disposition of which depends in a large measure the future prosperity or adversity of this vast food supplying industry in which millions of people of all stations and conditions are directly interested. The condition of the plains cattle industry at this moment, hampered and weighed down as we know it to be by unnatural yokes of oppression in nature, unjust discrimination and successful operation against it of the schemes and intrigues of powerful combinations, as well as the possibility of still greater and more appalling calamities from threatened invasion of our ranges by bovine diseases of a malignancy and fatality terrible to contemplate, made possible through the absence of governmental protection, imperatively demands of its dependence their immediate thoughtful consideration and the employment of their combined intelligence in the preparation of measures for its present relief and future protection. The state of affairs herein hinted at cannot be viewed with indifference by any cattle men in the land, and it is to be hoped that every individual who has a dollar at stake in this vast enterprise has awakened to an appreciation of the insecurity of his investments so long as the present condition of things remains unchanged. In view, therefore, of these facts and the near approach of the date of the annual meeting all associations entitled to membership in the association are earnestly requested to name delegates at an early date to represent their respective interests in the coming deliberations. The preparation of papers and essays upon topics of general interest to range stock men to be read before the convention are cordially solicited.

[Signed] R. G. HEAD, President.
J. C. [illegible], Secretary.

Pension Extension

WASHINGTON, December 22.—Senator Blair to-day introduced a bill making comprehensive changes in the pension laws. The bill practically removes the limitation of the arrears of pension act, and makes the fact of enlistment into the service of the United States evidence of physical soundness at the time of enlistment. It enlarges the class of persons to be entitled to the benefits of the pension laws so as to include all who may have been disabled while actually engaged in the service of the United States whether they are mustered or not. It also grants a pension to all female nurses in the late war who shall have arrived at the age of fifty years and are without means of comfortable support. The rate of pension for minor children is increased from $2 to $5 per month. It is made unlawful to reject a claim upon evidence secured by secret investigation or because the records of the war or navy department fail to show evidence of disease, wound or injury. It is also made unlawful to reduce a pension or strike the name of a pensioner from the rolls without giving 30 days notice to the person affected. When a claimant who is entitled to arrears of pension dies before the claim is adjudicated the widow, minor children and dependent relatives shall be entitled to the pension. Such further sums as may be necessary to pay the pensions granted under provisions of this act are appropriated in addition to the $75,000,000 appropriated by the last pension bill.

Restriction of Telegraphs

WASHINGTON, December 22.—The bill reported from the committee on postoffices and post roads to-day by Warner, of Ohio, relative to the construction and maintenance of telegraph lines by land grant railroads provides that all subsidized railroads for railroad, government, commercial and all other purposes, shall build telegraph lines and exercise by themselves alone all telegraph franchises conferred upon and obligations assumed by them under the existing act; that railroad companies operate their telegraph lines so as to afford equal facilities to all without discrimination in favor of or against any person, company or corporation; that it is the duty of the commissioner of railroads to report complaint to the secretary of the interior and see that the order is properly and efficiently carried into effect, and if necessary, enforced by mandamus or other legal proceedings; that any telegraph company shall have the right to connect its lines with telegraph lines of the railroad company in order to facilitate exchange of telegraphic communication between the two companies; that any officer of the railroad company who refuses to operate its telegraph lines in the manner provided in this act shall be fined not exceeding $1000 and imprisoned not less than six months.

The Diplomatic Bill

WASHINGTON, December 22.—Upon representation made by the department of state the house committee on foreign affairs has restored to the diplomatic and consular appropriation bill the provision raising the Chinese mission to the first class at a salary of $17,500. To offset this increase three consulates are dispensed with. The total appropriation made by the bill is now $1000 in excess of the appropriation made in the original bill. An elaborate report will be presented to the house with the bill explanatory of the reasons that influenced the committee in preparing the bill, exceeding by $330,000 the appropriation made for diplomatic and consular services during the current year.

Cattle Protection

DENVER, December 22.—R. G. Head, president of the International Range association, in an interview to-day expresses himself as being in favor of enlarging the powers of the bureau of animal industry in preference to securing the passage of the bill for the suppression of contagious cattle diseases, introduced by Senator Miller of New York. Colorado cattlemen sustain Mr. Head in this view. Telegrams from numerous sections of the range country to the Colorado association are to the same effect. Mr. Head mailed a letter to the secretary of the interior to-day asking him to prohibit the importation of cattle from all countries where bovine diseases exist.

The Opium Traffic

WASHINGTON, December 22.—The bill relating to the opium traffic reported by Edmunds from the committee on foreign relations to-day makes a proviso for carrying into effect article 2 of the Chinese treaty of '81. It makes it a penal offense for the citizens or subjects of either country to import, transport or sell opium in the other; gives the American consular court of China and district courts of the United States jurisdiction of cases arising under the bill.

The Tariff Question

WASHINGTON, December 22.—There is a report in circulation to the effect that a caucus committee of republican senators, acting under instructions of the caucus, will meet a similar committee representing republicans of the house some time during the holiday recess to consider the course of procedure with regard to the tariff.

Warner's Report Adopted

WASHINGTON, December 22.—The post office committee of the house to-day adopted the report submitted by Representative Warner on the subsidized telegraph lines with few unimportant amendments.

A New Register

DENVER, December 22.—A Washington special to the Times says: The senate has confirmed the nomination of Frank P. Arbuckle to be register of the U. S. land office at Lamar, Colo. Frank Arbuckle has been superintendent of the American District Telegraph company in Denver.

XLIX Congress.

SENATE.

WASHINGTON, December 22.—Edmunds, from the committee on foreign relations, reported a bill to provide for the execution of article 2 of the treaty with China of the 17th of November, '80, on the subject of the opium traffic and gave notice that he would ask for its consideration as soon as possible after the holidays.

Hoar offered a resolution directing the committee on commerce to report in the river and harbor bill as to each public work for which appropriation is made therein, the facts which render such appropriation advisable and of national importance and the condition of the work if begun. Adopted.

Dolph introduced a bill to establish an assay office at Portland, Oregon. Referred.

The resolution introduced by Dawes on the second day of the session instructing the committee on finance to inquire into and report what specific duties and internal taxes that will reduce taxes to the necessary and economical expenses of the government without impairing the prosperity of home industries or the compensation of home labor was taken up and adopted and then at 12:55 the senate adjourned until Tuesday, the 4th of January.

HOUSE.

The speaker announced the appointment of Forney, McAdoo and Hopkins as conferees on the bill increasing the annual appropriation for the militia.

On motion of Toole of Montana a bill was passed granting the St. Paul, Minneapolis & Manitoba Railroad company right of way through certain Indian reservations in North Montana and northwestern Dakota.

Barnes of Georgia concluded his argument in opposition to the bill by an urgent appeal in behalf of good faith to our wards the Indians, and of the maintenance of national honor by the government.

Springer of Illinois, in advocating the bill, stated that he was not surprised at the gentleman from Georgia appealing for good faith towards the Indians, and especially towards the Cherokees. If any gentleman should appeal for good faith towards the Cherokees it should be the gentleman from Georgia. The Cherokees had formerly resided in that state and the ancestors of the gentleman's constituents after having broken faith with them had driven them from the state at the point of the bayonet.

Barnes—It is unfair for the gentleman to make an attack on my state. What he says is not true. Even if it were true it would show that I have improved on my ancestors and he has degenerated from his. [Laughter and applause.]

Springer argued in favor of the bill.

At the conclusion of Springer's remarks the committee rose and the matter was laid over and the house adjourned until January 4th.

WELCOME NEWS.

The Sale of the Midland Officially Denied

By President Hagerman in a Letter to a Friend,

Which we Publish in Full This Morning,

Thus Effectually Disposing of the Entire Subject.

For the last six weeks rumors have been in circulation to the effect that the Atchison, Topeka & Santa Fe railroad had purchased the Colorado Midland railroad and that it would either purchase the Denver, Texas & Gulf railroad or else build a branch line to this city. The Pueblo papers have repeatedly published statements to the same effect and in some quarters the sale had come to be regarded as a settled fact.

When Mr. Hagerman, the president of the Midland, started for New York a short time ago it was said by those who believed in the report of the sale of the road that he had gone east to make the necessary transfer of stock to the officials of the Atchison road. Soon after his departure the rumor of the road's sale was still more widely circulated by the Pueblo and other papers, the former stating that they had positive assurance from parties connected with the Santa Fe company that the sale had been made to that company.

It was also urged by those who believed in the sale of the road that Mr. D. B. Robinson, the recently appointed general manager of the Midland, had formerly held intimate relations with the Atchison company and that his appointment was due to a desire on the part of that company to have the construction of the railroad under the direct supervision of an experienced railroad man and one thoroughly familiar with their objects and intentions.

The latter is only a specimen of the reasons which have been advanced to establish the fact of the road's sale.

In view of this it is not strange that some doubts as to the present ownership of the Midland has been developed in this city. Mr. Hagerman and Mr. Robinson both being in New York when these rumors were at their height, there was really no one upon the scene to officially and authoritatively deny them. The fact of the silence of the officials of the road was said to be an evidence of the truth of the report.

It must be said however that many of our citizens who are connected with the Midland have always vigorously denied its sale, though none of them desired to have their statements considered as official.

That these rumors have produced a feeling of uneasiness among our business men and capitalists cannot be denied. We have been reliably informed that several important transfers of real estate have been delayed or prevented on account of these reports.

As was stated above Mr. Hagerman, the president of the company, is now in New York. One of his intimate friends in this city recently wrote him concerning the rumors of the Midland's sale to the Atchison company and of the uneasiness which had been developed in Colorado Springs business circles in consequence. In reply he received the following letter from Mr. Hagerman yesterday which we take great pleasure in publishing:

NEW YORK, December 18, 1886.

DEAR SIR:—Your favor of the 14th received. You say the rumors that the Colorado Midland had sold out to the Santa Fe are so persistent and strong as to cause uneasiness in Colorado Springs. In reply I would say that if it will make any one easier in his mind you can state as coming from me that there is not one word of truth in the report. There has been no sale to the Santa Fe or any other company, no talk of a sale, nor is there likely to be—at least not to my knowledge. But then the newspapers have always known more about the Midland's relations to other companies than I have.

Yours, &c., J. J. HAGERMAN.

The citizens of Colorado Springs have always evinced a lively interest in the construction and ultimate operation of the Midland. They recognize the fact that its completion will mark an important period in the city's history and that its operation will have much to do with its future growth and prosperity.

Mr. Hagerman's letter should at once dispose of all reports of its sale to the Atchison company. As was stated by the recipient of the letter, Colorado Springs will be its terminus and its shops will be erected at Colorado City as has been always stated.

De Lesseps' Demands

PARIS, December 22.—It is stated that De Lesseps attended a banquet last evening and in the course of a speech stated that 137,500,000 francs are still needed to complete the Panama canal.

Pardoned by the President.

ST. LOUIS, December 22.—Obyre Owens, receiving teller of the Third National bank of this city, who embezzled about $200,000 of the funds of the bank, who has been serving a term in the Chester, Ill., penitentiary for that crime, was pardoned yesterday by the president. Owens has served one half of the term of five years to which he was sentenced. The president pardoned him on account of statements in several petitions sent from this city and Louisville. In granting the pardon he said he thought the prisoner has already suffered a sufficient penalty.

The Mining Case

DENVER, December 22.—Hon. C. S. Thomas completed his argument in the Durant-Emma case this morning. Mr. C. J. Hughes then addressed the jury on behalf of the plaintiffs until the noon adjournment. At 2 o'clock Hon. T. M. Patterson began the closing argument for his side and closed at 5 o'clock. Senator Teller will close for the plaintiffs to-morrow, when the judge will instruct the jury.

A Woman Doomed to Hang

ALBANY, December 22.—Governor Hill to-day issued an executive order postponing the execution of Mrs. Roxalana Druse, under sentence of death for the murder of her husband, from December 29, the date fixed in the sentence, till February 28. The governor says he does this in order to give the state legislature an opportunity to modify the law of capital punishment in application, and adds that as far as he is concerned the case is closed and the woman must suffer the penalty of her crime on the day fixed unless in the meantime the laws shall have been changed. The governor says that it was a clear case of murder and that he can find no reason for interference with the penalty except the sex of the condemned, which the law does not take into account. He says the evidence shows that the killing was most brutal and atrocious in its character. There seems to be scarcely a single mitigating circumstance. The daughter Mary aided and assisted her mother in the murder, and after the conviction of her mother she plead guilty to murder in the second degree, which plea on account of her youth, the fact that she was probably acting under the influence of her mother and other circumstances, was accepted by the district attorney and she was sentenced to the state prison for life.

Pan Electric Litigation

WASHINGTON, December 22.—Justice James rendered a decision to-day in the equity court in the suit of J. Harris Rogers against Attorney General Garland to dissolve the partnership known as the Pan Electric Telephone company. The attorney general in his answer to the bill of complaint denied all the allegations contained therein and was desirous to have the case tried on its merits, but the other defendants, Senator Harris, Commissioner Atkins, Commissioner Johnson and Casey Young, filed a demurrer, and on that the case was argued. Justice James to-day sustained the demurrer and dismissed the bill without going into the merits of the case. The attorney general is said to be disappointed at this result, as he hoped to have the question settled on its merits.

Fair Not a Speculator

SAN FRANCISCO, December 22.—The following paragraph has been reproduced in some of the Nevada and other newspapers: The Salt Lake Tribune quotes Bradstreet's as authority that Senator Fair was forced to settle with Mackay and Flood the other day to the tune of five million dollars, he being short on the stock market. Senator Fair's attention was called to-night to this statement. He pronounced it not only absolutely untrue, but devoid of the slightest foundation. "It is well known," he added, "I am not a speculator in mining stocks, and I am at a loss to know how so important a journal as Bradstreet's could have been itself the author of so false a statement."

Suit Against a Railroad

NEW YORK, December 22.—General Jas. S. Negley, claiming that he was promised $30,000 for settling certain disputes between the St. Louis, Kansas City and Colorado Railway company and the American Finance company, and also for selling control of the railroad's franchise, stocks and lands, which he effected, to-day procured from Judge Ingraham in the superior court chambers attachment against the property of the railroad company in this state. His suit was to recover the amount alleged to be due.

The English Faster

LONDON, December 22.—Jacques, the English faster, partook of food yesterday evening after an abstinence of 21 days. His experiment to fast until he collapsed had to be abandoned owing to pecuniary difficulties. But few people gathered to witness his attempt. This morning he walked ten miles before breakfast and then resumed work in the silk factory where he was employed before the beginning of his fast.

McQuade's Hearing

NEW YORK, December 22.—Argument to show cause why stay of proceedings should not be issued in the case of ex-Alderman McQuade, the convicted boodler, so that the case might be carried to the supreme court on motion to have the verdict of the lower court set aside and a new trial ordered, was adjourned this morning by Judge Pratt in Brooklyn until Tuesday next.

A Fight Stopped.

NEW YORK, December 22.—James Burke, 20 years of age, of Jersey City and Alexander Masters, aged 31, of Brooklyn, while engaged in a prize fight at [illegible], Long Island this morning, was interrupted by the police, who arrested the principals, their seconds, the referee and 25 spectators. The prisoners were taken before Justice [illegible], who committed them for examination.

Gave up the Struggle

ST. LOUIS, December 22.—A special to the Post-Dispatch from Cape Girardeau, Mo., says: Warren & Berwitz, extensive manufacturers of woolen goods, assigned for the benefit of their creditors to-day. Liabilities are estimated at between $50,000 and $100,000, assets $40,000.

The Sea Serpent.

NEW YORK, December 22.—The steamer Rhynland from Antwerp, which arrived here to-day, reports that yesterday abreast of Nantucket she passed the sea monster reported by the steamer Thingvalla. It proved to be a dead whale of gigantic size floating about fifteen feet out of water. It had apparently been dead for a long time.

Dividend Declared.

WASHINGTON, December 22.—The comptroller of the currency has declared a fifth dividend of 10 per cent in favor of the creditors of the Pacific National bank of Boston. This makes in all thirty per cent paid on claims proved amounting to $2,299,140.

Wabash Changes

ST. LOUIS, December 22.—It is alleged to-night that the eastern and western sections of the Wabash railroad will be separated under the new order of things and operated under different managers.

The report on mining industries of the United States exclusive of precious metals, with special investigations into the iron resources of the country and into the cretaceous coals of the northwest, forming the 15th volume of the tenth census report, has been received from the public printer and is now ready for distribution.

We publish this morning with pleasure an authoritative denial of rumors regarding the sale of the Midland railroad. The news will be very welcome to our readers who all wish the Midland to remain an independent line.

It will be remembered that a few weeks ago a boycott was declared against W. J. Hill & Co., paper box manufacturers of Chicago. A great effort has been made to enforce it. The Grocers' association has just decided not to buy groceries of any firm that buys boxes of W. J. Hill & Co. This is carrying the boycott about far enough for the law to interfere.

Last Friday was the 79th birthday of the poet Whittier. His friends visited him in great numbers and gave him substantial tokens of their affectionate regard. He feels as though he had lived beyond his time. Phillips, Emerson, Garrison, Whipple, Longfellow, Bryant and others with whom he was so intimately associated are dead. He alone of the distinguished anti-slavery agitators lives.

A San Francisco letter says, "A Wyoming bank president testified in a recent lawsuit that if he were offered 5000 head of cattle in that territory for nothing, he would not take them. The bunch grass is gone. The Wyoming ranges are doomed." From personal experience we can make no statement about the condition of the cattle ranges in Wyoming, but we are inclined to think that any man who would decline the gift of 5000 cattle anywhere in this country is not a safe man to take opinions from.

Brick Pomeroy is now in England to raise money on his tunnel fraud. He has already had a flattering biographical sketch published in the Pall Mall Budget, in which his great tunnel scheme is recommended. Some English paper ought to know his record and publish him. He is one of the worst adventurers in this country. He was editing a newspaper in Denver six years ago to forward a mining swindle. He succeeded in getting thousands of dollars from his readers, but was soon obliged to leave the country. No longer able to deceive the American public, he will try the English.

Secretary Manning does not state any reason why the duty upon woolen cloth cannot be reduced now as well as the duty on wool. The last time the subject was up for debate Senator Coke stated that both ought to be dealt with together if wool was touched. Senator Coke reflected the sentiments and common sense of several millions of people. It is a consumer's question. Is it to be supposed that congress has not just as much time to reduce a duty upon cloth as a duty upon the material out of which the mill-owner makes cloth?—[Dallas News.

This expresses very clearly the opinion of the sheep men of this state. It is not fair to help the wool manufacturer at the expense of the wool producer. "Horizontal" reduction, much as it is sneered at, is much fairer.

The dispatch regarding the liberal conference in London yesterday will be read with interest. It was to be expected that Gladstone should be opposed to the Dillon plan, but it is news that Parnell disapproves of it. If this is true and Parnell is able to make his party subordinate, he will give stronger evidence of leadership than ever before. He is strong enough to prevent general eviction because the English people know that the Irish people cannot afford to pay the present rates. Gladstone's new position will be strong. Salisbury, however, now that Gladstone supports him in the campaign against Dillon, is in a box. He can't gain anything in popular sympathy on the score that he is upholding law against Irish agitators and Gladstone sympathizers. He can now do one of two things. He can carry on his present policy without compromise and it will end in general eviction. This the English people will not support. The other course is to continue to prosecute Dillon, but provide as already suggested by Gladstone and Morley for some relief through the channels of the courts for those tenants who cannot pay all their rent. The first course is sure defeat. The second is a moral victory for Gladstone who gave the tory ministry the opportunity in September to adopt this plan.

There has been a good deal of speculation as to the relations of President Cleveland and Governor Hill, and also about the relation Tammany now sustains to the former. The following from the New York Times gives some light:

Anything Mr Cleveland has obtained in this state he has had to fight for through his friends. The nomination of Justice Peckham last fall is a conspicuous example. Was his nomination not forced upon the government and his friends? Not only the nomination, but the election of the candidate was accomplished only after the governor and his henchmen had been whipped into line by threats, which left little doubt as to the fate of the spoils democrats in case the justice was defeated. In addition to the Peckham fight, a fact may be stated which has not as yet been printed. Since the inauguration of the president, Governor Hill has not been to Washington. Why? He has received several invitations, but has not seen fit to accept them. The reason which one of his friends gives is that Hill did not want to get mixed up with the policy of the present administration. He wanted to ride two horses at once, to give out the impression that he was honestly opposed to the president's policy, but personally friendly with the president. If he goes to see Mr Cleveland now it will be because he is convinced of the collapse of his own boom, and hopes to ride into the governor's chair in 1888 on the Cleveland tidal wave. The first point of the better understanding that exists between Tammany and the friends of the administration was seen at the meeting of the general committee of the organization last Friday evening. It was the 1st meeting of the committee for the present year, and yet none of the usual anti-Cleveland, and anti-civil service and harangues for Hill resolutions were introduced. Not a member had a word to say on the subject, even Congressman elect W. Bourke Cochran refraining from making a speech. It was a splendid opportunity for a speech, and it is the first known occasion when the eloquent orator neglected to "say a few words" to cheer the hungry spoils-hunter. It is said that a bust of Mr Cochran, inscribed "silent for once," will be placed alongside the bust of John Kelly as a memorial of the Friday evening meetings.

Religious Surprise at Harvard

Boston Herald.

"There is no use in dragging us nolens volens to the muddy old theological pond you persist in calling the crystal water of the river of life," the Yale students have declared in a memorial to the faculty of the college, "you can force us down to the spot, but, as for drinking when we get there, we won't, and that's flat!" Horses and students are not as irrational animals as they too often get the credit of being, and this truth is illustrated by the recent conduct of the Harvard boys. Not only have the religious exercises there been made voluntary, but a spiritual water commission has been especially instituted to see to it that the quality of the water supplied shall be not merely barely drinkable, but fresh and sparkling from the eternal fountain head, and conveyed, moreover, in such living pipes as Phillips Brooks, Edward E. Hale, Francis G. Peabody, and others of like stamp—pipes that are well understood to be addicted to taking refreshing drinks of the precious liquid themselves, as it flows through their own channels. Now what is the result of all this? The miracle of the nineteenth century! Why the students are actually "crying for more." Not content merely with the beautiful devotional music, the well selected Scripture readings and the fervent prayers, they have actually made a call upon the clergymen conducting the exercises for additional remarks, a call to which the Rev Phillips Brooks, now on duty there, has responded by brief talks. Surely if any man had had the face to prophesy this of Harvard students a few years ago he would have been told to address his remarks to the marines or some equally credulous body of men on terra firma.

End of the Kearsarge

The appointment of a board of survey to see whether the Kearsarge shall be repaired or condemned and the impression at Portsmouth, where she is lying, that the latter will be her fate, may well stir up patriotic sentiment. No existing vessel of the American navy, not even the Hartford, possesses more historic interest than the gallant craft with which Winslow sent the Alabama to the bottom. In all the annals of our navy, rich as they are in stirring incident, there is nothing more exciting than that famous duel of vessels off Cherbourg. It would be hard too, to name any single combat of war ships surpassing that in national and international importance. There would be a feeling of regret at seeing the Kearsarge dismantled and broken up; and when this fate comes to her as it soon must, she will be as worthy of a farewell verse as was the famous Constitution, the lowering of whose "tattered ensign" inspired so many years ago the muse of Holmes.

The czar—Brother Jonathan, do you know anything about the Standard Oil company?

Brother Jonathan—I should say I did. Why?

They have been buying land and wells over here."

"They have? Have they made you an offer for your throne yet?"

Oh no."

"Haven't they hinted that you could make money by selling out now and retiring to private life, instead of waiting until they squeeze you out?"

Not a word."

"It's some other company then."

A Woman's Venture in Politics

Washington Critic.

When Hon John S. Barbour ran for congress the last time a near relative of his, the wife of a well known Culpepper county man, concluded that she would do a little electioneering for him. She went about it very quietly and said nothing until she was fully ready, then she went to her husband. "I've got a vote for Jack," she said, radiantly and joyfully. "No," said her husband, "you don't say." "Oh, yes, I've been electioneering just like a man and I've secured a vote for him, and the man's a republican, too."

"Well, that's good. Who is he and how did you get him?" "Why, it's the old darky, Rector, and I gave him one of your shirts for his vote." The husband looked at her for a full minute. "My dear," he said pityingly, "I would earnestly advise you to go out of politics. Rector is an idiot and can't vote for anybody."

The Boston Ideals in Missouri

Chicago News.

One night last season the Boston Ideals sang in Marion, Mo. It was an off night, and the agent took the chances and booked them for the only night of opera the town ever had. No one in Marion had ever heard of the Boston Ideals, and the manager did not expect a corporal's guard present, but what was the astonishment of the company to open to a house packed from pit to dome. Manager Foster was unable to account for it until he heard one usher say to another: "Well, this ain't like anything that Haverly ever wrote before." Foster dove for a programme, and found that by an error of the printer the opera had been announced in the daily paper instead of "Haley's latest," as "Haverly's latest."

Senator Frye's Grip on Figures

Lewiston Journal.

Senator Frye has a prodigious grasp on figures. Anybody who has heard him make a speech remembers how rapidly the statistics roll off his tongue without the aid of memoranda of any sort.

When the senator and his wife started for Washington the baggage master gave him four ordinary checks. The senator glanced at them hastily and put them in his pocket. When they neared Boston something led the senator to remark to Mrs. Frye and a friend who sat in the car with them: "I think I can tell you the numbers of the four checks in my pocket, although I have not looked at them since I started. They are numbered 675, 1019, 1403 and 9."

On pulling the checks from his trousers pocket the senator found them numbered just as he had said.

The New York Tribune

While THE NEW YORK WEEKLY TRIBUNE is the most expensive publication of its class in the United States, nevertheless its price is now fixed at $1 a year, the semi-weekly at $2, in both cases an extra copy with a club of 10.

The campaign just closed found the country in the trough of the political waves. The Republican managers have made the best struggle they could against a state of general apathy. In a few states they have been able by the inspiring influence of a great leader whose speeches have awakened almost the only enthusiasm anywhere shown. The result of the campaign is gratifying, its gains are an inspiration, the Democratic losses are a plain guide to the popular drift. From this time forward the country will feel the lift of the advancing wave of 1888 which, if we all do our duty, will sweep out from Washington the usurpers now in possession, the foes of protection, equality and patriotic government. It is now the duty of all earnest and experienced workers to bend their energies toward united and early work for 1888. The party is to be consolidated, cheered and rallied. To this work THE TRIBUNE pledges its zealous efforts.

THE TRIBUNE offers for 1887 several excellent premiums including:

"The Tribune Book of Open Air Sports." A work compiled by THE TRIBUNE especially for the young men of the United States. It is a thorough statement of the present status of Open Air athletic amusements in America, with suggestions to beginners, the rules of every important game, the records of noted contests and the achievements of American Champions. The book will contain about 150 illustrations. Chapters are provided on Archery, Base-ball, with the record of wonderful playing and the League and Association contests, and instructions how to curve a ball, Court Tennis, Lawn Tennis, Football, Cricket, Lacrosse, Racket, Horsemanship, Cross Country Hunting, Yachting, with a discussion of Sloop and Cutter and instructions How to Design, Build and Sail a Boat, Rowing, Canoeing, Fishing, Trapping, Swimming, Hunting with Shot gun and Rifle, Camping-out, Winter Sports, Bicycling, Amateur Photography and a few minor sports. Among the writers who have contributed are William Blaikie, Maurice Thompson, Captain Jacob A. Augur, Cavalry instructor at West Point, David Kirby, Thomas Clapham, General George W. Wingate, Professor George Goldie, Director of Athletics of the New York Athletic Club and a large number of private gentlemen throughout the country have furnished facts concerning the wild game and hunting sports of their several localities. No book of this character has ever been put into print in America. It is sufficiently elemental to be a "Boy's Own Book" and answer all the purposes of our manly youth, and yet will also meet the demands of adults. Will be ready for delivery December 1st. Octavo 500 pages. Retail price, $2 50. Terms postage paid, with Weekly, 1 year, $2 50, with Semi-weekly, 1 year, $3 50, with Daily, $10 50. Only to be had in connection with yearly subscriptions to THE TRIBUNE.

Also Blunt's Rifle Practice, a book for every hunter and National Guardsman, a fine Waltham Watch, the low priced Waterbury Watch, the two Unabridged Dictionaries, Wood's Medicine, Hygiene and Surgery, Illustrated, Ridpath's History of the United States, Illustrated, and Young's Concordance of the Bible.

RENTS IN IRELAND.

The Plan of Campaign Meeting with Some Success

But Gladstone and Parnell Not in Sympathy.

Relief Must Come from Parliamentary Action.

Gladstone and the Plan

LONDON December 22.—An interchange of views between Mr Gladstone and his colleagues of the last liberal cabinet on the attitude to be adopted by the liberal party at the opening of parliament has resulted in an agreement not to support the government in all local efforts to suppress the anti rent campaign but to urge immediate enforcement of some form of Parnell's bill for suspension of evictions. The Gladstone circle is irritated over the action of Messrs Dillon and O Brien and anti rent leaguers have been warned that there is no chance that the co-operation of Gladstone will continue unless they submit to Parnell who, desirous of a common policy with Mr Gladstone is suspected of aiming to suppress the plan of campaign.

The Pall Mall Gazette declares that both Gladstone and Parnell are no longer in accord with their followers who it says unless they di[illegible] and amend their error will find the[illegible] [illegible] when parliament meets without even the rump of a party. Notwithstanding Parnell's displeasure Messrs Dillon O Brien and Healy continue their anti rent tactics.

Parnell on the Situation

DUBLIN December 22. It can be authoritatively stated that Mr Parnell is convinced that the position of Irish tenants is worse now than when he introduced his anti eviction bill, that the plan of campaign has as[illegible] [illegible] procured abatements in rents where everything else has failed. He regards as improbable. He thinks it remarkable that the government should propose a coercion bill as the entire absence of crime leaves no excuse for coercion. Suppression of the Irish national league would inevitably result in the formation of secret societies that would rival one another in the commission of crimes and thus necessitate landlords asking parliament to further coercive powers. The present situation says Parnell points strongly to the probability of the government being obliged to introduce a bill reducing rents to the standard fixed by the recent decisions of the land commission. The government's illegal method of reducing rents through General Buller's [illegible] failed except where assisted by 'moonlighters' or the plan of campaign. Parnell will lead a strong attack upon the whole policy and action of the government towards Ireland at the opening of the coming session of parliament.

Irish Agitation

DUBLIN December 22.—The anti rent agitation in Ulster is spreading daily, and many tenants are joining the movement for lower rents. Twenty tenants on two large estates [illegible] demand for 25 per cent reduction.

Four evicted farmers at Tirhalla near Carrick on Suir have reoccupied their holdings under an agreement for a fifteen years purchase. Their reinstatement has caused much rejoicing.

The Nation advises tenants if the plan of campaign should result in failure to keep their rent money themselves. It is an essential condition of victory says the Nation that tenants shall not pay rack rents because their refusal to do so will abolish landlordism in Ireland.

Alexander's Fortune

LONDON December 22.—Prince Alexander has [illegible] [illegible] a denial of Madam De Novikoff's statement that he used his position in Bulgaria to make a fortune. He says he retires only the money voted to him by the [illegible] and that he is now as poor as when he was elected to the Bulgarian throne.

The Pueblo Chieftain states that the preliminary survey of the Pueblo & Eastern railroad will be commenced as soon as Mr Holbrook the chief engineer returns from the [illegible]. An assessment of 20 per cent has been made on the stock of the company, payable for [illegible] and that the Pueblo & Eastern railroad will be built there is no doubt.

We yesterday visited the furniture establishment of Fairley Bros. They have a large assortment of the latest styles in the furniture line including a fine line of upholstered leather chairs of their own manufacture. They have also lately received an invoice of hand some embroidered elder down pillows and quilts. They report a splendid holiday trade.

COLORADO NEWS

There is coal enough to supply the state of Colorado within five miles of Durango.

The State School of Mines is entirely out of debt and has a surplus in the treasury of over $1500.

It is stated that over $500,000 will be paid out in dividends by the various mining companies of Leadville this month.

The Leadville Herald-Democrat says it requires 5000 cars a week to transact the business of the Denver & Rio Grande railway.

The Colorado Milling and Elevator company is buying 4000 bushels of wheat per week at Fort Collins and pays $1 per 100 pounds.

Work upon the new electric light plant at Durango is progressing rapidly and it is expected to be in operation in the course of a week or ten days.

Mr Frank Leach of Manhattan, Kansas, will soon remove to western Colorado and locate at Grand Junction with a colony of agricultural people.

There are at the present time 700 men employed at the steel works at Pueblo. The nail factory has orders enough ahead to keep the men busy all winter.

There are over 200 graders at work on the Denver & Rio Grande on Two Elk creek, at the foot of the west slope of Battle mountain, and the contractors are complaining because they are unable to get enough men.

The farmers in the immediate neighborhood of Denver are expecting to obtain from $17 to $20 a ton for first class hay ere the grass grows again next spring. A hundred and fifty tons a day will no more than supply the demand.

Ground has been broken in Golden for the erection of glass works in that city. The Globe says that there will be five pots each having a capacity of 2500 pounds of melted glass and the building to be erected will be 80 feet square.

Manager Fisher of the Midland Railroad Construction company stated to a Times representative last Wednesday that they expected to run trains into Leadville in June next and into Aspen by August. As we have waited six years for railroads we can wait until August. This is the last winter of Aspen's discontent.—[Aspen Times.

William H Miner the republican candidate for the senate from the Fort Collins district, has served notice on Judge Ballard his competitor, that he would contest his right to the seat in the senate. The grounds of contest are that persons were allowed to vote who had not been registered in a certain precinct in North Park.

The directors of the Small Hopes Consolidated Mining company have declared dividend No. 48 of forty cents per share, payable on and after December 25. The books were closed December 18 and reopen on the 28th. This dividend amounts to $100 000 and swells the amount paid during the year to $787 500 and the total sum disbursed in dividends in the past thirty months to $2 512 000.

The Santa Fe Coal company is now working 693 men at their coal mines at Rockvale. These men take out about 93 carloads of coal a day or 1,400 tons and the company is now about eleven days behind with its orders, so great is the demand for this superior coal. The burning of the bridge on the Rockvale branch on Tuesday will delay matters somewhat as there are two heavy coal trains now on the other side of the burned bridge and not an empty car on this side.

The Holden Smelting company as now organized contemplate extensive improvements. The works were blown in only last September with three stacks. Two weeks ago the fourth stack was started up and now the company contemplate putting in two additional stacks which will give them a capacity for treating ore equal to any smelter in the state. The present capacity is 175 tons daily, and with the additional facilities 250 tons of ore will be treated daily. Considering that the plant is less than four months old, its present healthful prosperity speaks well for the enterprise of the company. The plant is comprised of the most modern appliances known to smelting all of the extensive improvements and inventions of the past few years being embodied in it. The company own several productive mines of their own, among them the Silent Friend in Monarch district, and the Adams at Leadville.

IT SEEMS A MIRACLE

That GAY, with so many competition defying dealers in town, could take a little seven by nine store and a smaller business and build up such a trade in so short a time. Good Shoes, Reasonable Prices, and Fair Dealing always win, and that, with considerable rustling, is the secret. He has a beautiful line of

and at very Reasonable Prices. Novelties in FELT SLIPPERS for Ladies and Gents. Cold feet entirely unnecessary. His lines of Shoes of all kinds are complete and not surpassed in quality and style by any house in the city.

He thinks his Shoemakers deserve mention, but "By their works ye shall know them." He has still many more GLASS SLIPPERS, and would like to see you all.
